

How is this generation defined? What describes the kids and students you're reaching today? Are you becoming the kind of leader that's needed in today's children's and youth ministries?

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1

Too often we let this world define us, telling us who we are. As Awana leaders, we need to ensure that our identity is rooted in Christ before influencing the lives of children and families. The truth is: God calls each of us by name. It's in Him that we are personally known, loved, and chosen. From this center of truth, we're designed to reflect Him to the people he places in our lives. When we grasp this reality for ourselves, we can pass it along to the distinct generation of kids and students we're called to serve. If you're eager to understand and impact this generation in the way God designed you, the 2017 Awana Ministry Conference is for you. Join together with other Awana leaders for inspiration, connection, and equipping. Your AMC experience will help empower you to reach kids, students, and families for Christ wherever you serve.

Locations

Milwaukee	Chilton	Madison
October 7	October 14	October 28
Spring Creek Church	Faith Alliance Church	Ridgeway Church

How is this generation defined? What describes the kids and students you're reaching today? Are you becoming the kind of leader that's needed in today's children's and youth ministries?

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1

Too often we let this world define us, telling us who we are. As Awana leaders, we need to ensure that our identity is rooted in Christ before influencing the lives of children and families. The truth is: God calls each of us by name. It's in Him that we are personally known, loved, and chosen. From this center of truth, we're designed to reflect Him to the people he places in our lives. When we grasp this reality for ourselves, we can pass it along to the distinct generation of kids and students we're called to serve. If you're eager to understand and impact this generation in the way God designed you, the 2017 Awana Ministry Conference is for you. Join together with other Awana leaders for inspiration, connection, and equipping. Your AMC experience will help empower you to reach kids, students, and families for Christ wherever you serve.

Locations

Milwaukee	Chilton	Madison
October 7	October 14	October 28
Spring Creek Church	Faith Alliance Church	Ridgeway Church

How is this generation defined? What describes the kids and students you're reaching today? Are you becoming the kind of leader that's needed in today's children's and youth ministries?

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1

Too often we let this world define us, telling us who we are. As Awana leaders, we need to ensure that our identity is rooted in Christ before influencing the lives of children and families. The truth is: God calls each of us by name. It's in Him that we are personally known, loved, and chosen. From this center of truth, we're designed to reflect Him to the people he places in our lives. When we grasp this reality for ourselves, we can pass it along to the distinct generation of kids and students we're called to serve. If you're eager to understand and impact this generation in the way God designed you, the 2017 Awana Ministry Conference is for you. Join together with other Awana leaders for inspiration, connection, and equipping. Your AMC experience will help empower you to reach kids, students, and families for Christ wherever you serve.

Locations

Milwaukee	Chilton	Madison
October 7	October 14	October 28
Spring Creek Church	Faith Alliance Church	Ridgeway Church

How is this generation defined? What describes the kids and students you're reaching today? Are you becoming the kind of leader that's needed in today's children's and youth ministries?

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1

Too often we let this world define us, telling us who we are. As Awana leaders, we need to ensure that our identity is rooted in Christ before influencing the lives of children and families. The truth is: God calls each of us by name. It's in Him that we are personally known, loved, and chosen. From this center of truth, we're designed to reflect Him to the people he places in our lives. When we grasp this reality for ourselves, we can pass it along to the distinct generation of kids and students we're called to serve. If you're eager to understand and impact this generation in the way God designed you, the 2017 Awana Ministry Conference is for you. Join together with other Awana leaders for inspiration, connection, and equipping. Your AMC experience will help empower you to reach kids, students, and families for Christ wherever you serve.

Locations

Milwaukee	Chilton	Madison
October 7	October 14	October 28
Spring Creek Church	Faith Alliance Church	Ridgeway Church

[named.]

Awana Ministry Conference 2017

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you
by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1b

[named.]

Awana Ministry Conference 2017

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you
by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1b

[named.]

Awana Ministry Conference 2017

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you
by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1b

[named.]

Awana Ministry Conference 2017

Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you
by name, you are mine. Isaiah 43:1b